

GOOD GIVING NEWS

Welcome to the latest Good Giving News from Giving West.

This edition includes a range of resources, research and opportunities across each of our focus areas.

If you have a news story you'd like to share with us, email info@givingwest.org.au.

Giving West

NOT FOR PROFITS

Giving West Aspire Conference Scholarship

Last chance to submit an application. The $7,000 grant will go towards funding attendance at an international conference for an individual representing a WA not-for-profit organisation.

Applications close 31 March 2014.

>> Read more

Latest NFP Opportunities and Information

See the latest addition to our NFP Opportunities and Information webpage: Global youth network AIESEC offers Not for Profits access to international graduates passionate about social impact.

>> Read more

Collaboration key focus for new Perkins Institute

The official opening of the Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research this month will provide an avenue for collaboration between WA researchers in researching serious diseases.

>> Read more

CORPORATE GIVING

Volunteering WA's Skills-based Volunteering Pilot

Following the success of its recent pilot and the increased interest in volunteering of this type, Volunteering WA will now be offering a Skills-based Volunteering Program.

>> Read more

ISSUE: MARCH 2014

Not for Profits

Corporate Giving

Donors and Grant Makers

Next Gen

WA Giving Hub

www.wagivinghub.org.au

A fee-free online donations website listing WA causes and creative ways to give

Find a cause to support through regular or one-off cash donations

Links to other ways to give: donate goods, give your time

Search for causes with similar aims for NFP collaboration opportunities

Woodside Development Fund

At a breakfast hosted by Woodside and the Western Australian Council of Social Service Inc. (WACOSS), Woodside launched a collaborative initiative to deliver impact in the early childhood development space.

>> Read more

Collaborative report on mental health

A collaboration between EY and ReachOut.com by Inspire Foundation, 'Crossroads – Rethinking the Australian Mental Health System' report released 11 March.

>> Read more

Outward Bound Catalyst Program WA

Seven-day professional development course exploring the concepts of effective leadership through experiential learning and high-impact wilderness activities such as rafting, hiking and high ropes. Places available for 5-12 May 2014, Dwellingup.

>> Read more

DONORS & GRANT MAKERS

The Funding Network (TFN) - Perth event

TFN is an Australian non-profit organisation that hosts live crowd-funding events in a fun and inclusive setting. Early stage social entrepreneurs, who have been selected by TFN Members, pitch their projects seeking funding from the audience.

To nominate your project for this event, or to register to become a member to get involved in the Perth TFN event on May 6, click here. Project nominations close 26 March 2014.

'Private Ancillary Funds after 12 years'

Insights from John McLeod, researcher at the JBWere Philanthropic Services team, on the findings from the inaugural JBWere PAF report 'Private Ancillary Funds after 12 years'.

>> Read more

New Directory of Environmental Organisations

The Australian Environmental Grantmakers Network's (AEGN) new directory of Australian environmental organisations, searchable by issue area, approach, region and key words.

>> Read more

Networking WA's
Corporate Philanthropy
Breakfast is on
10 April 2014

Full details and registration available via their website.

NEXT GEN

40under40 WA Business News Award Winners 2014

Congratulations to this year's winners, including recent speaker at our Next Gen networking event, Darren Lomman, CEO of Dreamfit Foundation.

>> Read more

National Youth Awards 2014

Finalists announced, with WA representing in several categories including Community Leadership. Winners announced 11 April. National Youth Week kicks off in Kalgoorlie, running 4-13 April.

>> Read more

Optus RockCorps Generation We Not Me Report

Gen Y is given a good wrap in this Australia-wide report from Optus, with findings showing young people are just as generous with their time and money as previous generations, if not more so.

>> Read more

Facebook

Twitter

Website

Email

LinkedIn

Copyright © 2014 Giving West, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences